LOCAL AND PERSONAL

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ACTIVITY.

The second call for a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce brought a large attendance last Friday night.

It being the regular time for the annual election of Directors and officers Messrs. W. J. Nester, Pete Jungman and Elmer J. Leinweber were elected for three years to succeed Earl Beon, Dr. T. B. Knopp and Earl Starnes whose terms had expired. Felix Batot tendered his resignation as a Director and George R. Carle was elected to fill out the unexpired term.

After considerable informal discussion in which many divergent views were expressed, it was agreed that the committee having in charge the matter of providing funds to take care of the 1930 deficit be given more time in which to take care of the matter. Likewise the matter of providing a fund for taking care of the organization's 1931 activities was left in the hands of the new Board of Directors.

Following adjournment of the meeting the Directors met and elected officers for the year as follows:

H. E. Haass, President.
H. F. King, Vice President.
W. N. Saathoff, Secretary.
Jno. M. Finger, Treasurer.

A committee working under the direction of the Board of Directors is busy circulating a subscription list to finance the 1931 activities.

A late report from the committee is to the effect that subscriptions are being made promptly, and if all will "kick in" for a reasonable amount the 1931 budget will be cared for in full.

Mr. Adolph Nietenhoefer calls our attention to the fact that the transfer of lots in Hondo and San Antonio to Charles Nietenhoefer et al. as reported in last week's Anvil Herald, was not a sale to any one but a gift of the property from himself to all of his sons and daughters. We are sure most of our readers so understood it, but that no one may be misled we gladly make this explanation.

Mr. Alf. Zinsmeyer is having the O. S. T. Service Station building moved from its former location on the corner to the lots formerly occupied by the miniature golf course, a few lots east, where it will be located on his own land. What disposition Mrs. Fritz Leinweber will make of her grounds that have been thus vacated is not known to this paper.

At a meeting Monday night of members of the Medina County Aid Society, H. V. Haass, Secretary-Treasurer, read his annual report showing eighteen death claims paid for 1930. The society has something over 800 members and is in a sound financial condition. The old officers and directors were all re-elected for 1931.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Schneider and their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Schneider, were here Sunday for the confirmation at St. Paul's Lutheran church and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Saathoff. Mr. and Mrs. Saathoff's son, Chester, was among the class of nine who were confirmed.

Notice has been received of the marriage of Miss Margaret McClellan, first grade teacher, to R. P. Ainsworth of Colorado City. Miss McClellan has the good wishes of the many friends she made during her three years' stay in Hondo for a happy and prosperous future.

EDUCATION AND RELIGION.

Mr. Hadey, former President of Yale University, said: "I do not believe that you are going to make the right kind of citizens by godless education, and then adding religion afterwards. Education and religion must go hand in hand." I think there has not been a greater truth spoken than this one. Every sane individual recognize the contribution that Religion has made to our civilization.

The Christian Church is the pioneer in the educational field. Practically all of our early education was Christian. Today, in the separation of Church and state, we have gone far afield, and have very largely lost sight of the fundamental things in education assuming, it would seem, that it is the training of the intellect that is so important. Moral training and teaching is so often ignored in our present education programs.

Again we quote from an authority that should be heard. That is our President, Mr. Hoover. He says: "All things that we hope for in the future must take root in our educational institutions." They, therefore, must assume the responsibility of preparing for the proper kind of citizenship. This suggests the question: What goes in to the making of the right kind of citizens? In the first place, the Home has a very vital part in starting the right kind of foundation. Those very early days are very important in the young life. Early impressions are very vital. Second, the public school has a very important function in directing the minds and ideals of our growing boys and girls. Hence it is very necessary that we have the right kind of teachers over our young life. The athletic coach becomes often the boy's ideal; or the interesting and attractive young ladies have a tremendous influence over the girls. The lives of our teachers should be exemplary that they may inspire the lives of our youth to the proper kind of citizenship. The proper respect for our laws should be taught in every possible way. We need not be surprised at the breaking down of our laws, as they are flaunted at on every hand and even so-called respectable citizens disregard some of our most common laws. We are becoming a nation of law-breakers. For a few dollars many a man has sold his honor as a law-abiding citizen. Have we not been teaching the youth to violate our laws? The repudiating of religious teachings leads one just as sure to disregard the laws of his country. Where are we going?

Then again our Higher Institutions of Education have been rather slack in their appreciation and teachings of Religion. Until recent generations this class of Education was altogether under the direction of the Church and due stress and importance was placed on Christian Ideals. But the entry of the State into this field has caused a letting down of Christian teaching to a large part of our citizenship. We have, as a result, swung toward materialism.

This subject will be discussed more at length Sunday morning at the Methodist Church by the pastor. Every parent and every one that is interested in a better class of citizenship is urged to be present. We especially request every one that has to do in any way with the young life of today in Public school or Sunday school or in any other way to be present. Religion in Education is going to challenge those of today. How are you going to meet it?

THE HONDO STATE BANK.

In August, 1906, the Hondo State Bank was organized and took out a charter, as authorized by law, to conduct a banking business for a period of twenty-five (25) years. This period being about to expire, at the meeting of the stockholders of said bank, held on the 6th of the month, a resolution was unanimously adopted to renew its charter for an additional period of twenty-five years commencing on the date of the expiration of the time of its original charter.

At this stockholders meeting, the old board of directors, consisting of P. Jungman, C. W. Gilliam, I. H. King, W. G. Muennink, F. A. Martin, D. H. Fly and H. F. King, were re-elected for another year; and the board of directors then re-elected the old officers, H. F. King, president; D. H. Fly, vice president; J. R. Chancey, cashier and A. H. Schweers, assistant cashier.

An examination of the bank's condition showed it to be sound and healthy, and the stockholders are well pleased with both the progress the bank has made in its twenty-five years of business and its present standing.

An Important Message To The Businessman

The urge for Texans to buy Texas-made goods, whenever justified by a parity of price and quality, is not dead. And Texas manufacturers, as individuals, will still be guilty of neglect if they fail to cultivate their home markets.

There is but one way for Texas manufacturers to capitalize upon this opportunity. IT IS TO ADVERTISE. Texas manufacturers who sell a considerable volume in other states have BUILT UP THAT BUSINESS THROUGH ADVERTISING. Out-of-state manufacturers who sell considerable volume in Texas also have built up that business through advertising.

The big lesson which Texas manufacturers must learn is that TEXAS NEWSPAPERS ARE ALSO TEXAS INDUSTRIES AND DESERVE PATRONAGE; that Texas newspapers open up the way to increased sales and increased profits in Texas; and that AN ADVERTISING APPROPRIATION SCHEDULED FOR TEXAS NEWSPAPERS IS AN INVESTMENT, AND NOT AN EXPENSE.

When that lesson is really learned, and the knowledge put into effect, industrial payrolls in Texas will grow by leaps and bounds and hard-times will be lost in the flood of orders and the hum of factories.

Thus observes the Texas Editorial Digest. This paper wishes to add to the above that it all applies with equal force to the distributors of manufactured products all the way down the line to the smallest retailer.

THE ANVIL HERALD IS YOUR BEST ADVERTISING MEDIUM.

PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION.

The first meeting of the Hondo Parent-Teacher Association of the new year was held at the High School auditorium Monday afternoon, with Mrs. R. W. Speece presiding.

After the reports of the various officers the secretary, Mrs. Joe Dillon, read a report, prepared by Mrs. J. R. Chancey, of the meeting of the County Council at D'Hanis in December.

In the count for the book awarded the grade having the best representation at the meeting, the sixth grade won with some eleven votes.

After the business meeting the assembled members were delightfully entertained with the following program:

1. Piano Solo, Evelyn Knopp.
2. Reading, "Cinderella in Black," Miss Minnie Margaret Howard.
3. Duet: piano, Evelyn Knopp; violin, Margaret Ann Knopp.
4. Trio, "To a Wild Rose," Misses Thelma and Mary Ruth Wilson and Margaret Dillon, with Miss Frances Finger as accompanist.

At the close of the evening Mrs. Tom Holloway and her assistants, Mesdames Isaac Wilson, C. M. Merritt, Vernon King, J. A. Horger, A. C. Thallman, J. S. Fly and J. G. Newton, served delectable sandwiches and hot chocolate to about fifty members.

CATTLE STOLEN.

Cattle thieves have been invading our community since the first of the year. Clarence Van Fleet reports a cow stolen and Jack Ulbrich reports two stolen. Several others report cattle missing. Indications are that the cows were hauled off in trucks.

Sheriff Chas. Schuehle and deputies have stayed out on numerous nights until the "wee sma' hours" in an effort to catch the thieves and sooner or later some miscreant is going to pay for his thievery.

BIG CROWD HERE FOR TRADES DAY.

Despite the inclement weather Wednesday the usual large crowd was in town for the premium awards at three o'clock.

The first premium went to Miss Florence Grell and was a fine dairy cow.

Adolph Pichot secured the second award, a valuable pig.

The pen of chickens went to Mrs. H. J. Meyer as third prize. In this award the third ticket had to be drawn before the number was produced.

Herman Koch drew fourth for $10.00; Mrs. Clarence Van Fleet, fifth for $5.00; and Ben Balzen, sixth for $5.00.

The crowd took great interest in the calling of the numbers and broke up in the greatest good humor and began making purchases at once and asking for tickets for the next drawing, Wednesday, February 11, 1931.

Prof. W. N. Saathoff again presided in his jovial manner as the master of ceremonies at the awarding of the prizes.

Changes in Board of Trustees

From The Owl.
We are very sorry to learn that last week Mr. Batot and Dr. W. H. Smith resigned from the board of trustees of Hondo Independent School.

Mr. Batot has been a member of the board for many years, and has been president since 1928. The board, under the direction of Mr. Batot, has efficiently administered many reforms as well as the various duties.

Dr. Smith is almost a charter member, having been on the board since 1913. He has been a very capable member, and the results of his cool deliberations are simultaneous with the school's steady advancement. We are very sorry to lose these two capable officers.

The office of president will pass into the efficient hands of Dr. H. J. Meyer, who has proved his ability in the past. The vacancies will be filled by Messrs. R. J. Reily and V. P. King. The latter has served for about ten years in the past. We are sure that these new officers will fill their positions capably and efficiently.

FARM RELIEF.

Why complain at the farmers when they have raised abundance of every thing that we can eat and wear. The trouble is with the money power.

The panic of 1907 originated in Wall Street.

The depression of 1920 originated in Wall Street.

The depression of 1929 started in the same place.

Wall Street has the habit of gathering all the money into the stock market, and then unload their stocks at a high price, and then they start a panic in the market by kicking the bottom out and prices of stocks go tumbling to the bottom. It would not be so bad if it was only stocks that went tumbling to the bottom. But the money barons and big bankers begin to call in their loans and refuse to make any new loans and so money begins to get tight, and buying begins to slacken, prices of all products begin to decline and raw materials are the first things to suffer.

As money tightens, enterprise slackens, and all lines of enterprise begin laying off men and women; first by hundreds then by thousands until now they have reduced the working forces by four or five million people.

The money barons have got the government and bankers scared to death, because the government does not know what to do about it, and neither does the banker. They are both afraid to do anything. So it continues to get worse each day. What was considered good collateral a year and a half ago is not good collateral for a loan today, because money is so tight, and prices continue to decline; for that reason, and no other.

The government is the only organization that is strong enough to combat the money power in this country, and since many of our government officials are in league with these gangsters, it is almost useless to expect Mr. Hoover to take any interest in the people's affairs as he and Mr. Mellon seem to think that our treasury belongs to them exclusively.

And now about Mr. Mellon and his stand on the soldier's bonus. Mr. Mellon does not want to pay it for ten or fifteen years yet.

What if our European debtors should tell our government that they would not pay any thing on their war debts to us until 1945. They would have just as good a right to defer their payments to us as Mr. Mellon and others have for deferring the payments to our soldier boys.

I say that this money that our European debtors are paying to our government each year should be paid to the boys who won the war and it should be paid now. And I agree with Gen. John J. Hartnett and millions of other citizens, that any Congressman or Senator who does not support the bill that is now before the House, should be voted out of office in the next election. There should be petitions circulated and signed by a majority of voters in every Congressional and Senatorial district in the United States commanding all Senators and Congressmen to support this bill.

The boys need the money and need it now. THEY EARNED IT. They won the war for us. I say, pay them and they will win back prosperity for us. And woe to the office holder that opposes the immediate payment of our debt to Our Real Old Fighting Boys.

E. J. MURRAY.

WORK NEAR COMPLETION ON D'HANIS ROAD.

The three-mile stretch of road now under construction just west of D'Hanis is now nearing completion. Traffic has been detoured from the new road for some months, but will soon be open to the traveling public for another period before topping with asphalt.

The gravel is about all laid, there being a gap of only a few hundred yards of dirt road left as the Sentinel goes to press this week. The road looks mighty pretty to those who have gotten a glimpse of it and all are gladly anticipating the day when this little stretch of road will be completed making an unbroken pavement all the way to San Antonio.

LUTHERAN COLLEGE OF SEGUIN RANKS HIGH.

State Department of Education Gives Fine Commendations.

The State Department of Education recently inspected the Academy of Lutheran College at Seguin, Texas. Supervisor, Mr. H. O. Smith, commended Lutheran College very highly in his report to the State Superintendent of Public Instruction. The State Department expressed commendations for the following evidences of material progress: Installation of central heating plant, erection of new girls' dormitory, valuable additions to the equipment of the Science Department, study hall provided at Weeber Hall, supervised study plan, visual instruction in Biology, installation of ice water fountains, athletic improvements. Mr. H. O. Smith reports as follows concerning conditions at Lutheran College: "The campus is exceptionally attractive, buildings and grounds are well cared for, the faculty are experienced, enthusiastic and exceptionally well trained. Some very excellent teaching was observed. The spirit and responsiveness of the student body merit the utmost commendation. Earnestness, sincerity of purpose and loyalty to the highest ideals of teaching seem to actuate the entire group of instructors. It is indeed a privilege and pleasure to visit in a school plant as progressive as this."

Despite the financial depression throughout the country Lutheran Junior College and Academy is enjoying a record enrollment. While many schools had to take a drop in enrollment the attendance at Lutheran College increased 40 per cent over last year. Almost every part of the State is represented in the student body. Night school courses are offered by the Business Department. Registration for the 2nd semester will be on Friday, January 23.

HIS TORICAL NON SENSE

From The Owl.

Miles Standish.

When the Pilgrims got ready to come to America they decided to make the trip by airplane. Imagine their consternation when they found that the airplane had not yet been invented. Well, they had to take a boat and they chose the great liner, the Mayflower. There were many difficulties to be met with in an ocean voyage in that day; Indians with deadly bows and arrows lurked behind trees, ready to kill the first stranger they saw, but they made the trip without much trouble. They landed on Plymouth Rock, and after bouncing a few times they went ashore.

Miles Standish was the leader of the Pilgrims, and he was pretty good too, except he was awful bashful. He supervised the building of the colony and was awful rough with the men. It wasn't long before he fell in love with a girl by the name of Priscilla but he was too bashful to ask her to marry him so he sent a friend to ask her to marry him. Now it happened that Priscilla liked the friend, John Alden, and she said, "Why don't you speak for yourself, John." Well John spoke for himself and he and Priscilla were married. On their honeymoon they visited Niagara Falls and various other places.

Priscilla was awful mean to poor John and wouldn't let him go out with the gang at night. Of course Miles Standish was heart-broken when his friend married Priscilla, but when he saw how she was treating him, he was so glad that he didn't marry Priscilla that he decided to call a national holiday.

This holiday was the first Thanksgiving Day. Miles invited a flock of his feathered friends, the Indians. Among them were Hiawatha and his wife, Minnehaha, John Smith and his wife, Pocahontas, Chief Rain-in-the-Face, Chief Sitting-Bull, and a host of others.

The holiday was a howling success with all the Indians present and Miles was satisfied. That is the story of the first Thanksgiving.

BADGERS WIN CLOSE GAME.

The Kilnec Blues of San Antonio were defeated 35 to 33 Friday night by the Hondo Badgers. The game was close throughout with neither team ever having more than a 5-point lead. The Badgers held the lead after the first quarter but were not allowed a moments' rest by the fast visitors. The win was the third straight victory for the Badgers and for the Kilnec Blues it was their third defeat in 13 games.

Montel, Badger center, was chased from the game early in the second period for excessive fouling and the locals were forced to resort to a driving offense. Martin did great work for the losers on both the offense and defense, while Mask turned in another fine game for the Badgers.

Jones was high scorer with 13 tallies and was followed by Martin and Snooks with 12 and 11, respectively.

The line-ups were:

Badgers (35) (33) Kilnec Blues
Jones, 13 6, Kretzer

VALLEY STARS DEFEAT DISTRICT 26 "ANGORAS" 29-0.

From The Owl.

The All Star Valley team came out on the long end of a 29-0 score at the Battle of the Grapefruit played at Harlingen on New Year's Day. The District 26 gridders, known as the Angoras, were outclassed by the valley crew from the opening whistle. The Valley coaches started the entire regional championship Harlingen team and used the rest of the Star squad as subs.

Haegelin and Taylor, who represented Hondo with the Angoras, had a chance to show their ability. Haegelin played one quarter, while Taylor played parts of two.

This is the second time the Valley team has won the annual Battle of Grapefruit game. Perhaps with several members of the 1931 Owl team playing with the Angoras next year, the team from District 26 will be able to defeat the Valley crew, if the two districts tangle again.

IN LOVING REMEMBRANCE OF COUSIN HARVEY NEILL.

Dear Harvey, thou hast left us, Yes, left us for evermore, But we will find him with the angels On that bright and golden shore.

You have crossed the dark cold river, Angels hold you by the hand, 'Tis hard, so hard, to speak the word, 'Must we forever part?'

Harvey, dear, how we loved you No pen can write, no tongue can tell; But the Shepherd called you, And we must say farewell.

Everyone seems to miss him; Everyone to be sad. Vacant is his little chair, Empty is his little bed.

True, yes true, he was to all, Smiles forever on his face; Sorrowful we looked upon him, 'Ere was given his resting place.

Gone, yes gone, he has left us, Harvey, forever we did part; Joy for sorrow does always come! Sorrow for us is very hard.

God bless his parents and his brother, God grant their feet may never stray, God grant, some day, they all may come To meet him in his home.

EMPLOYMENT INCREASES AT CHEVROLET PLANTS.

December production of the Chevrolet Motor Company was 64,018 cars and trucks, more than twice the 26,000 units built last December and by a wide margin the biggest twelfth-month in the company's history. W. S. Knudsen, president and general manager, announced today upon his arrival in New York for the opening of the Automobile Show.

Employment of the company which has registered consistent gains since the introduction of the 1931 models in November, stood at 32,101 for the week ended December 27, a gain of 347 over the previous week, Mr. Knudsen stated. During the current month the employment figure is expected to climb to 40,000 men, Chevrolet's normal operating force.

December is the second successive month to register a new high production figure, November with an output of 45,000 Chevrolets exceeding all previous Novembers. The January schedule calls for the manufacture of 70,500 units and the tentative figure set for February, despite the short month, stands at 70,400 sixes, according to the Chevrolet executive.

When production of the new 1931 models got under way, employment in the manufacturing division of the company was 26,000, Mr. Knudsen stated. Since that time old employees have been added gradually, and with nearly 10,000 more scheduled to get back to work in January, all regular employees will be back on the job.

Mr. Knudsen said that the increase in production schedules is predicated on the highly gratifying reception of the 1931 cars, as is evidenced by the demands of dealers for cars for immediate delivery.

A Sudden Freeze—and Trouble

A SUDDEN drop in temperature—frozen radiator—car in the garage for repairs! That story will be told over and over again for the many thoughtless motorists who neglect to put their cars in proper condition for winter driving.

Automobile authorities, the United States Weather Bureau and the United States Bureau of Standards have come to the assistance of the motorist in an effort to reduce the enormous damages done the automobiles of the country during winter freezes.

Warnings are now being issued detailing the necessary steps toward preparing cars for freezing temperatures, the Weather Bureau announcing approximate dates when the first freezes may be expected, the Bureau of Standards fixing the essential qualities of the perfect anti-freeze solution, and automobile experts giving specific directions as to the proper care of the automobile cooling system.

It is pointed out that there must be a thorough cleansing of the cooling system and a tightening up of all parts before even the best of anti-freeze solutions will function properly and give adequate protection.

As to the choice of an anti-freeze, the Bureau of Standards, after long research, advises that the solution should meet these nine tests: (1) must give complete protection, (2) should not boil away, (3) must do no damage to the cooling system, (4) should not heat up the motor, (5) should not affect the paint or varnish of the car, (6) should be odorless, (7) must be non-inflammable, (8) should not be viscous at low temperatures nor decompose at high temperatures, (9) should not deteriorate.

DEVINE NEWSLETS.

From The Devine News.

Millions of blackbirds have been seen late in the evening going north from the hegari fields south from town. They are several minutes in passing and at times almost darken the heavens. They are feeding on shocked hegari and that left uncut and on the ground at the Burch or old Fullerton farms, where several hundred acres of this feed was grown. Just where they go to roost we do not know; possibly around San Antonio. Hundreds of bushels of grain and grass seeds must be eaten by them in a day.

ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN CHURCH NOTES.

Program for Sunday, January 18:

9:30.

German Services at 10:45.
The Rev. C. P. Hasskari will conduct the services next Sunday, the 18th. All are cordially invited to hear him.

The undersigned herewith expresses his hearty thanks to the citizens the Hondo Anvil Herald for kindly publishing his church notices. Especially does he feel grateful to the

The Lord be with you all. He also extends a cordial invitation to all Hondos who happen to be in New Braunfels on a Sunday, to worship with us at St. Paul's Lutheran Chapel, on Santa Clara Street, one block east of the San Antonio-Austin high-

REV. HEINEKE TO NEW BRAUNFELS.

After several years spent as pastor of the Lutheran church at this place
Rev. H. A. Heineke moved with his family to New Braunfels Wednesday.

During Rev. Heineke's pastorate here, the local congregation has made a substantial growth and he has seen a wide circle of personal friends both in and out of his church, who see him leave with a great deal of reluctance.

Believing his services needed more at New Braunfels than in this field, he left for the place where he hoped to be the more useful to the cause to which he has devoted his life. And while regretting his departure, all wish for him a full realization of his hopes to be of service to the people to whom he has gone.

TAINED.

parlor games were played and many laugh-making contests were held during the evening.

Delectable tuna sandwiches with hot chocolate were served to the following members and guests: Misses

THE SOLDIER BONUS.

The payment of the Adjusted Service Certificate or Soldier Bonus will probably be a big issue in the present session of Congress.

1. The Ex-Service Adjusted Service Certificates do not represent a Bonus; they represent a debt the government has confessed is due the ex-soldier for Adjusted pay based upon service rendered.

2. According to present arrangements 90 per cent of the ex-soldiers who have certificates of value are borrowing on their certificates from the government. They are paying 6 per cent interest on THEIR OWN money for which they are receiving 4 per cent interest. The difference in interest rate will practically destroy the value of the policy after the first and subsequent small loans.

Poor Andy Mellon, Secretary of the Treasury, whose income is estimated to be from his private fortune $100,000 a day or $30,000,000 a year, says the government cannot afford to pay the Adjusted Service Certificates, that it would drain the Treasury. Millions of dollars were given Mr. Hoover to feed the poor in Russia and Belgium; did that drain the Treasury?

Congress adjusted the pay of the railroads (which they drafted during the war) to the amount of $1,000,000,000—also adjusted the pay of war contractors to extent of over two (2) billion dollars. These amounts were paid in cash. Did that drain the Treasury? Furthermore, the parties were not asked to take a post dated check, or a due bill marked "Nonnegotiable."

The Ex-Service man who dodged bullets for $1.10 a day is compensated by being given an Adjusted Service Certificate and asked to wait 20 years to get his money. True, he is permitted to make a loan each year, which amounts to very little, and if he borrows the maximum amount each year and repays none of the principal, paying 6 per cent on his OWN money. Then at the end of the 20 years the veteran will have approximately $46.00 cash coming to him.

Instead of the small amount that can be borrowed each year, I contend that a cash settlement now would be far more beneficial. We hear the cry, that if paid, it would only be squandered. No doubt some of it would, but practically all of the boys are now middle aged men and know the value of a dollar and would use it to a good advantage. But suppose they did, it is theirs, they earned it and should have a right to it as they please with it.

Canada, England and France paid their soldiers a bonus and real money. England borrowed money from the United States and paid her own soldiers a bonus of from $280 to $4,758 each.

The U. S. paid $60.00 to each soldier as a bonus but required them to pay it back in arriving at the amount of Adj-Service Certificate.

With financial conditions as they are, general depression all over the country, I contend that payment in cash at this time would greatly alleviate matters in every city and town in United States. It will require about three and a half billion dollars to pay the bonus.

These facts and figures I have secured from the Congressional Record and are authentic. Now, Mr. Ex-Service Man if you are interested in this matter, and want to hear some surprising facts, meet with us at the Court House, Hondo, Wednesday, January 21, at 7:45 P. M. It has been my privilege to assist

YOUR AID IS NEEDED.

The Patman Bill, H. R. 3493, providing for the immediate payment of Adjusted Service Certificates is now pending in Congress and will be voted on in the near future. The American Legion, Department of Texas, at its Twelfth Annual Convention endorsed this bill and we are very anxious that it be enacted into law. I urge, therefore, that every Legionnaire, Post Commander and Post Adjutant in the state of Texas wire or write immediately the congressman from his respective district requesting his support of this measure.—Hal Brennan, Department Commander.

TEXAS AND TEXANS.

By
Will H. Mayes
"All Texans for All Texas"

More and Better Roads

It is already evident that 1931 will be a year noted in Texas for the building of State highways. The money is now available or in sight for a building program in excess of that of any previous year since Texas began to realize that good highways are a valuable asset. All the roads needed can not be built during the year or in many years, but Texans now feel assured that as rapidly as the work can be advantageously done work will be extended to all important centers of the State. The Texas Highway Commission has done a notable work in the last four years, and there is every reason to believe that the same kind of building progress will be done under the present State administration.

Why the County Prospers

The Floresville Chronicle-Journal proudly refers to the fact that 1930 was a year of prosperity for the people of Wilson county and says this was "made possible by a great program of diversification," which will be carried forward with even greater co-operation during the year 1931. I have studied closely papers from all sections of Texas and have found that where the farmers have worked together along well-studied lines of diversification and marketing under the leadership of county farm and demonstration agents there has invariably been least complaint of financial depression. To make farming a great business it must be conducted along business lines, which is something that Texas farmers are learning.

Help Them Make Good

Many new officials are going into office this month. Most of them were profuse in promises before their election and most of these really want to make capable public servants. The way to secure fulfillment of those promises is for the people who supported them to continue to support them by encouragement and practical help rather than criticism. We are too inclined to forget that public officers are merely our public servants and like others rendering service need to be kept reminded of their promises in accepting office and of their duties as officers. The people alone can make theirs a government of the people.

Extending Oil Field

The Rusk county oil field gives much promise of developing into one of the largest in Texas with the bringing in of a well near Kilgore, reported to have an estimated flow of 1,000 barrels daily. The new well is expected to be the beginning of extensive development in a large area on the county line of Rusk and Garza counties.

Crystal City Produce

Crystal City has shipped this season up to January 1, 1,235 cars of grape produce, of which 1,132 cars were cash. The total shipments to the same date last year were 560 cars, an increase of 735 cars. Profits were not as large as growers had hoped, but they made some money and gave employment to many workers who would otherwise have been idle.

Hondo's Stable Products

Hondo is another town that ships out more products than it ships in, but Hondo goes in largely for staples rather than perishable produce. Last year it shipped 163 cars of corn, 18 cars of maize, 12 cars of oats, 20 cars of cattle, 350,000 pounds of wool and mohair and a little less than 2,000 bales of cotton, which was about 100 per cent more than the year before. Hondo is one of the towns from which very little has been heard about "financial depression."

Taking Care of School Books

The State Board of Education has found that many schools do not take proper care of the free books issued to them. Strict rulings have been made requiring teachers to make more accurate reports as to condition of books used by students and requiring inspectors of schools to see that the rulings are observed. The Board is also looking into the matter of use of numerous text books not required with a view to stopping the heavy expenditure for books of which many patrons of the schools have strongly complained.

Ore City Boom

A small hamlet in the northeastern section of Upshur county, known as Ore City, seems on the eve of a boom as a result of the leasing of some 250,000 acres of land said to contain more than 80,000,000 tons of ore of high-quality metallic content. Hotels, store buildings and numerous other structures have been contracted in anticipation of the early development.

of the valuable minerals, which are largely iron ore.

Menard Courthouse

Menard is to have its second courthouse to cost about $120,000 and to take the place of the little stone structure erected soon after the organization of the county at a cost of $15,000 and which the county has outgrown.

Henderson Building

Discovery of oil in Rusk county has caused unusual building activity at Henderson. People have moved into the town in such numbers that, despite the fact that most of the citizens have hospitably thrown open their homes for prospectors, there have been insufficient houses to care for all of them.

Would Start New Towns

Thousands of people are waiting with great interest for the decision of the Interstate Commerce Commission as to whether the Texas-Pacific Railway shall be allowed to build its proposed line 313 miles north of Big Spring. The line would cross 17 counties and many new towns would spring up along the route soon after its location.

Fort Worth Industries

A Fort Worth reader of this column has sent a clipping showing that Fort Worth has no cause to complain of "Old 1930," inasmuch as during the year 32 new industries have been located there, giving employment to 1,272 people. The total capitalization of these industries is in excess of $2,440,000. What other Texas cities or towns can beat this in proportion to population?

Deepening Channel

Work will soon be started deepening the Corpus Christi ship channel from 25 to 30 feet at a cost of $515,000. The Federal Government will also make a survey of the proposed extension of the intracoastal canal from Corpus Christi southward to the mouth of the Rio Grande, including a survey of the Arroyo Colorado to Harlingen.

Living at Home

If Bastrop county farmers adhere to their program, the slogan of which is "Live at home and board at the same place," they will have no cause to complain of the year 1931. There is too much disposition shown to live in the automobile and board at the grocery store. And this is true of other people than farmers, too.

Canning More Meat

Home demonstration agents reporting to A. & M. College state that farm families are canning more meat of all kinds than in any previous year and that in doing so they are realizing much more on each animal than they secure on the local markets. Besides they are decreasing the expense of the family living and making more certain a steady supply of food.

Forgetting Hard Times

The Granger News reports that Christmas trade in Granger was so good that everybody forgot all about hard times talk, and suggests that it might be well to carry out this Christmas spirit throughout the entire year. Instead of going away to larger towns to make Christmas purchases people of the Granger community are showing more interest in trading at home as a means of promoting home prosperity. The dollar spent away from home is sure to stay away from home.

A Big Order

An Ohio buyer is wanting to contract for one and a half million pounds of Carrizo Springs strawberries and the Javelin says the contract will probably be made, still leaving enough for the famous strawberry festival, which I am hoping to attend.

WHY REMAIN A LEMON IF YOU CAN BE A GRAPEFRUIT?

It may be said that a grapefruit is a lemon that has taken advantage of its opportunities. By way of comparison we would say that the men and women who are high up in business and business positions were once lemons, but now grapefruits because they have developed their opportunities. When they went into their first position they were helpers not help-ers. The difference between the helper and the help-ers is the training. The modern business man says, I want help that has been trained to understand business principles and methods. His secretary must not only know how to write shorthand and translate it, but must be able to handle all kinds of business papers connected with business transactions. His bookkeeper must know how to keep books, to read and analyze them. He must know something about the underlying principals of buying and selling, of credits and collections, income tax, insurance, economics, etc. Something of the human element that enters into every phase of business. Graduates of the BYRNE COMMERCIAL COLLEGE have all this and more; they have much that they do not get out of books. Their training gives them poise, confidence and a basis for business growth. It develops initiative, enthusiasm and leadership in business. That is why they draw good salaries as bankers, etc. They are business trained not just taught.

There is as much difference between commercial schools, methods and systems as there is between a stage coach and a modern bus and the saving of time afforded you by the Byrne Commercial College is about as great as the bus saving over the stage coach yet the cost of their courses is no more than those of other schools.

The capital of most young people is time, how are you investing yours? There is an opportunity right now for you. Will you go forward or stand still?

Write today for our free catalogue and decide now. Address the Byrne Commercial nearest you, Dallas, Houston, San Antonio, Fort Worth and Oklahoma City. Five colleges located in five employment centers.

ROUND ABOUT THE HOME

SOME TESTED RECIPES.

Arranged by Domestic Science Department C. I. A.

The following menus have been prepared by members of the household arts department of the College of Industrial Arts to encourage the use of cereals in the diet. Cereals are important because they furnish one of the cheapest sources of energy; they supply almost half of the building material (protein) of the average diet; they contain valuable mineral matter; and they provide desirable bulk in the diet.

BREAKFAST

Grape Nuts or Corn Flakes with Sliced Bananas

Sausage Griddle Cakes

Kidney Beef Stew with Corn Muffins

Apple Pudding Coffee

Vegetable Chowder with Toast

Fried Slices of Wheatena with Syrup or Honey

Fried slices of cream of wheat or grits may be substituted for the wheatena.

Preparation of Breakfast Cereals: All 'ready-to-eat' breakfast cereals such as corn flakes and shredded wheat biscuits, should be heated in the oven to restore crispness just before serving. Uncooked cereals, such as cream of wheat and rolled oats, are usually quite successfully prepared by using the proportions given on the carton. Appropriate combinations of the two types of cereals give variety; corn meal mush with grape-nuts, cream and sugar; toasted bran or puffed rice added to cream of wheat and served with cream and sugar.

APPLE PUDDING

Mix 2 cups cooked cream of wheat with 2 cups of milk, 3 beaten eggs and 1 cup sugar. Pour one-third the cream of wheat mixture into a buttered baking dish, cover with rings cut from 3 apples cored and sliced, sprinkle with sugar and nutmeg and dot with butter. Repeat twice, making 3 layers of the pudding with apples over the top. Bake in a moderate oven 1/2 hour and serve hot or cold with cream. Both fruit and cereal may be varied, dates and rolled oats making a pleasing combination.

FRIED WHEATENA

Cook wheatena according to directions for breakfast cereal and mold in a square pan. Remove from mold; cut in slices about 1/2 inch in thickness; dip in egg diluted in 2 tablespoons of milk. Fry in deep fat until crisp and brown, or saute in a frying pan in a small amount of fat. Serve with fruit sauce or syrup.

BREAKFAST

Rolls Oats with Dates, Brown Sugar and Milk

Bacon and Eggs Toast

Hot Whole Wheat Biscuits

Lemon Gelatin with Thin Cream

Scalloped Potatoes and Onions

Bread and Butter

Raisin Bran Cookies Milk

SALMON LOAF

Mix 2 beaten eggs and 1 can salmon with 1 cup cooked cream of wheat (rice or grits may also be used.) Season with salt and pepper and bake in a greased bread tin 40 minutes. Garnish with hard-cooked

For you found steel you could not penetrate.
But when you hurl your love against my shield eggs and parsley. Serve with white sauce.

RAISIN-BRAN COOKIES

Cream 1-3 cup butter; add 2-3 cup sugar and 1 egg and beat well. Add 1/2 cup bran, 1-3 cup raisins, and 1 1/2 cup flour which has been sifted with 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, and 1/2 teaspoon cloves. Add enough milk to make a stiff drop batter. Drop by teaspoonfuls on an inverted pan lightly greased. Bake in a moderate oven.

A NEW YEAR'S COUNTRY PARTY.

By Juliette Frazier.

One of the most enjoyable and delightful affairs ever given by our Community club was a New Year's Country party. The hostesses met the guests at the door in red and blue calico mother hubbards. An old fashioned organ was brought forth and a country choir was formed, which was to "welcome the New Year." The girl who sang the loudest received a red and white checked gingham sun-bonnet as a prize, the boy received a corn-cob pipe. A girl in an old, faded, ankle length, ill-fitting dress beat on a dish-pan to announce supper. Partners found each other by fitting together the pieces of pictures of pumpkins, squashes, etc., which had been distributed among them. Red cotton tablecloths were used.

For refreshments there was country in plenty, and the pies, doughnuts, nuts and coffee, after the fried chicken and baked ham, disappeared with true "country appetites."

Each guest received a different kind of souvenir—a candy setting of eggs in a little basket, a couple of slices of candy bacon on a paper plate, a paper sunbonnet, a bandana handkerchief, a small mouth organ, etc.

A couple of fiddles were added to the organ in the evening, and as the old year waned all the funny country figures merrily tripped the steps of the old-time square dances.

When the New Year dawned, the choir, the fiddles, the organ and the dish-pan all vied with each other in greeting it effectively, and the funny 'country folks' laughed till they cried when the din was over.

A party of this sort costs very little, and it is a jolly way to wish one's friends a "Happy New Year."

WANTS TO BUY CHICKS.

Mexico, December 1, 1930.

Fletcher's Farming
Hondo, Texas
Gentlemen:

Enclosed please find one $1.00 bill, in payment of subscription to your paper; if this is not the price of said subscription, the balance shall be sent on receipt of your notice.

I am interested in buying a lot of baby chicks from a first class flock and hope to find in your paper full information about the matter. Besides that, if you can kindly direct me to some reliable poultry breeder, I will appreciate it very much.

I have quite a number of propositions from different States of your country; but I prefer to get the which has not only proven constitutional, but has demonstrated fully its merits. I believe that each agricultural section must have legislative enactment which will definitely and specifically supervise agricultural production in the same manner it now supervises other industries. This action is imperative; it is inevitable. To many this is a radical suggestion and it remains to be seen how it will be accepted. Some such measure as McDonald proposes will likely be introduced in the next legislature.

San Antonio's 200th Anniversary

It is difficult to conceive of anything Texan being 200 years old, but on March 9, 1931, sixteen families of Canary Islanders arrived at the spot where San Antonio is located and proceeded to establish a government. San Antonio will hold a bi-centennial celebration of the beginning of the city's government, from March 4 to 9, 1931, reviewing the city's history through a series of pageants, dramas, concerts and varied ceremonies. Texas has reached an age where its people appreciate its history enough to commemorate its achievements, and such commemorative events arouse a patriotic pride in working toward still greater progress.

Tax Waste Evident

Addressing a convention of auditors, comptrollers and treasurers, a speaker not long ago said: "I am convinced that at least 40 per cent of every tax dollar collected in the United States is wasted." To this the Dallas News added: "Unfortunately this is right. There should be an honest return in work or material for an honest dollar's pay." E. G. Senter, who has made a study of Texas economic conditions, says that in Texas the tax waste is near 60 per cent, and calls attention to the fact that the operation of State Government now costs over 2,000 per cent more than 22 years ago, although there has been no unduly large increase in population. He comments, "It is a pity our officials freely proclaim reforms when they are candidates and forget it when they attain office."

Reducing Passenger Fares

To meet the competition of busses and private cars the Texas-Pacific has reduced its passenger fares from Texarkana to Big Spring to 2 cents a mile from about 3 1/2 cents. The Texas-Mexico railway has made a like reduction on its lines and other Texas roads will likely make similar reductions soon. The most exorbitant railway charge now in force is that of the Pullman company, the rates being more than 85 per cent above those in force before the World War.

Enlarging Creamery Plant

Evidently the creamery plant at Cuero is doing a satisfactory business. Recently improvements and additions have been made that cost about $20,000. The people of DeWitt county are satisfied, for they are supplying a large part of the milk that the creamery is using in making products that have a State-wide distribution.

Terracing Produces Profits

Texas farmers once pooh-poohed suggestions of terracing, but are fast learning that it pays. Figures compiled on about 3,800 acres of McCulloch county show that on terraced lands the cotton yield is about twice that on land unterraaced and that the same ratio of increase is obtained on feed crops. Farmers now go in large numbers to terracing schools to learn how it is done. Although the weather was inclement, more than 100 Karnes County farmers recently attended such a school and terracing demonstration at Kunge.

Christmas Turkey Crop

Better organization of turkey growers, better grading and better marketing methods have resulted in a good market for turkeys for both the Thanksgiving and Christmas trade, with a constantly increasing price, ranging from 15 to as much as 20 cents a pound in some places. An effort will be made to create an all-year market for Texas turkeys. In a number of Texas counties from $40,000 to $80,000 has been realized from the sale of the turkeys in November and December.

"Eat More Lamb"

Probably activated by the increased sale of turkeys due to more systematic selling, sheep growers of West Texas have been conducting a publicity campaign to get the public to eat more lamb. The movement is said to be getting good response and creating a greater demand for lamb meats.

Fur Trappers Busy

Not a great many Texans think of Texas as a fur breeding State, yet fur trappers at this season are making good money selling furs of numerous small wild animals. At Uvalde it is estimated that sales will reach about $70,000 this season. At Lampasas the 60 trappers' licenses sent to that county were soon exhausted and more had to be obtained. Almost every county in Texas furnishes a good field for fur trapping.

New Texas Enterprises

Texans are always starting and making profitable some new enterprise or another. Near Rockdale, N. C. Vance started with a dozen pheasant eggs and a bantam hen and now has a fine flock of multi-colored pheasants. The hens lay an average of 74 eggs a year, which sell at $3.00 a dozen and he gets $7.50 for a cock and two hens. Pheasants eat about half as much as chickens, and their meat is identical with that of quails. Bob Hale of Rockdale, captured two wild mallard ducks in the Rio Grande Valley and now has about 50, some of which are two generations removed from their wild forebears. He keeps their wings clipped to prevent them from flying away in the migrating season and has plenty of wild duck at home.

Good Times Are Here

Any close reader of Texas newspapers must admit that the last half of 1930 has been much more prosperous for Texans than a like period of 1929. Bank and mercantile failures have been fewer. Industrial enterprises have picked up. Farmers who have practiced farm diversification and have been systematic in business are more prosperous. The building program of Federal and State governments, of large corporations and of individuals has been larger. There is not a large percentage of unemployment—about 1.7 per cent of the population—but the unemployed are finding it harder to get along than heretofore because employers are practicing greater economy than formerly. It is also evident from the papers that present plans for constructive work in all lines indicate that 1931 will be a year of big undertakings in Texas. Purse strings are being loosened for great enterprises.

Learning From Farmers

Texas farmers are fast learning the advantages of co-operation, and are organizing all kinds of co-operative movements to their advantage. They are finding that they farm better and sell their products to better advantage by working for their mutual interests. They have been slow to see this and have lost much by trying to fight all their battles alone. Manufacturers have been pursuing largely the same policy, but are learning from the organizations of farmers and fruit and truck growers that they can make greater progress by working together for the development of their business.

Industrial Awakening

The three regional chambers of commerce in Texas are starting a great movement in educating the Texas public to patronize Texas industries. The manufacturers are organizing for a vigorous campaign in which these chambers of commerce will join, to give the widest possible publicity throughout the country to industries and manufacturing enterprises of the State—to let the entire country know that Texas manufacturers are prepared to compete in products and prices with the best in the land. They are not expecting to build up patronage on sentiment, but on the merits of their goods. Texas has depended too much upon agriculture and upon its natural resources. Its manufacturers are to be brought to the place they deserve at the front.

Farming With Electricity

The West Texas Utilities Company reports that West Texas farms having electric service have increased from 235 in 1926 to 1,047 in 1930. In addition to lighting, refrigeration, cooking and water heating, electricity is used on these farms for milking, separating, churning, water pumping, wood cutting, feed and meat grinding, irrigating, filling silos and heating incubators and brooders. There is a model farm in Goliad county of 1,800 acres on which there is but one horse, all the power used being electrical.

Better Business Bureaus

Speakers at numerous meetings of fruit and truck growers in the Lower Rio Grande Valley have stated that the Valley loses at least $1,000,000 annually, stolen from them by fraudulent operators in produce and trucksters in finance, advertising and insurance schemes. They propose to organize a Valley-wide business bureau "with teeth in it" to rid themselves of the parasites that have been living off of their earnings.

Crystal City Spinach

Over 700 cars of spinach had been shipped from Crystal City on Dec. 10, and two train loads of from 40 to 45 cars were then going out each night. It is hard to imagine the whole world using so much spinach, but that is by no means all the spinach that Texas is sending to other States, for it is a staple crop in practically every South Texas county where there is irrigation.

Big Cabbage Acreage

It is estimated that the cabbage acreage in Texas is 25,800 acres or about 43 per cent more than last year. California reports 5,080 acres, Florida 4,000 acres, Louisiana 7,740 acres, Texas having nearly twice the acreage of the other three leading cabbage growing States.

A MOUSE STORY.

From The Owl.

Most people think of purple mice, singing mice, etc, with close connection with the "flowing bowl." However, this is not always the case. Recently, while visiting my grandparents, I heard of a singing mouse. This mouse had found his way into the house, and in spite of efforts to trap or poison him, was still at large. He has been seen about the house several times and appeared perfectly normal. The first night of my visit, he sang most of the night. Of course, the mouse did not sing like people do, but nevertheless, it was singing. It resembled a cricket singing tenor.

And now comes the touching part of the story. When I awoke in the morning, there lay the mouse beside by bed. He was dead! I am ignorant of the cause of his death unless, hearing me snore, he died of shame for his own vocal powers.

The moral of this story is that, while ditch-digging is not dishonorable, it is very unhandy. Therefore, go to work!
